Acknowledgment of Arrival and Dismissal Procedures

Arrival

Parents/Guardians are to park their car in a designated parking spot and physically walk their children to the school entrance. Children should not be made to walk by themselves to the school entrance. Cars are not to stop or park by the school entrance to drop off children.

Dismissal

Parents/Guardians are to park their car in a designated parking spot and physically walk and wait under the overpass, where the security office is located, to pick up their children. Parents/Guardians should have their safepickup barcode handy, children will not be dismissed without the safepickup barcode. If a parent forgets their barcode, the child will be dismissed after the dismissal process has ended and the Religious Formation staff can verify with the adult's ID that they are able to pick up the student. Parents/Guardians are not to scan the barcode and wait for their children in the car, the Parent/Guardian must be present at the door when their child is exiting.
